

Kim Jones and Howard Smythe share many heroic qualities. They are open-minded individuals who have a common vision to further improve the quality and well-being of the community. Both Kim and Howard can be found devoting a big part of their time towards their community at several locations. For many years, Kim and Howard have continued to contribute their time towards the Thompson Community Association Board of Governors and Directors, while partaking in a key role in building strong foundation for everyone to grow with. They have also for the past few years, played an integral role both behind and on the Olympic Celebration Venue scenes. And aside from volunteering day and night, they continue to stay actively involved in their community while sporting a most courteous presence in both the social and recreational aspect of their community. Both Kim and Howard are genuinely dedicated to making the days of everyone around them brighter. Hence, they can be two of the most positive influences around their communities.

One can be close to Kim Jones and feel his glowing nature of kindness and gentleness. One can also approach Howard Smythe and immediately gain ambition to accomplish a task.

Heroes at heart, Kim Jones and Howard Smythe. These are smiles of dedication.

